PERIPHERAL OF THE YEAR

TURTLE BEACH X41 HEADPHONES

We're not sure who loves these more: us or our significant others. The X41s pump Dolby 7.1 surround sound into your skull — convincingly — while also adding a boom mic for Xbox Live use and a digital transmitter for crystal-clear, line-of-sight-free wireless use. The upshot? They're almost as indispensable as your HDTV. They must derive their awesomeness from our planet's yellow sun, as they sure can't be from around here.

Additional Groovy Gadgets:

- DJ Hero Turntable Controller — We've always wanted to make "wiki-wiki" in our living rooms.
- The Beatles: Rock Band Gretsch Duo Jet Wireless Guitar — Wielding it helps you better make plastic-guitar love to your Xbox 360.
